What MedOne can do:

For the specialist

- Gain skills with developing technologies
- Locate information about hot topics
- Concentrate on improving procedures
- Survey the field's newest information

For the resident

- Absorb knowledge about surgical techniques
- Qualify for boards after interactive studying
- Seek training any time or place
- Follow expert advice for operative cases

For your institute

- Balance in-class and online resources
- Update content available to surgeons
- Catch prospective trainees' attention
- Encourage on-the-go education

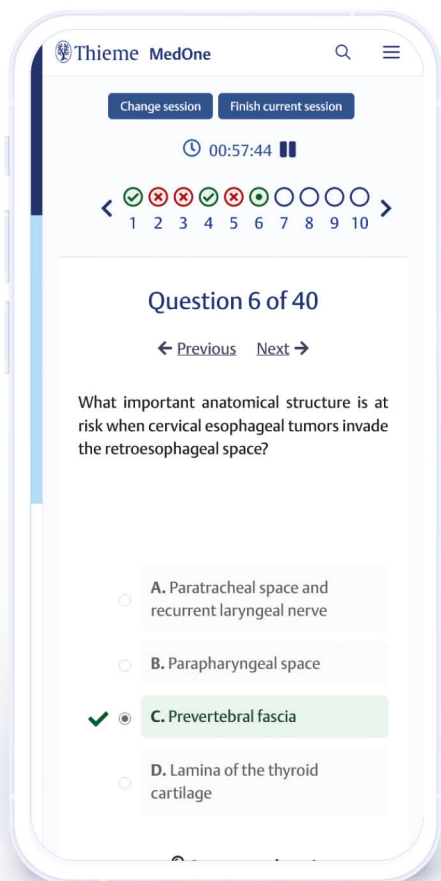

Expert otolaryngology resources

Before surgery

See vestibular surgery illustrated in clear, colorful anatomic illustrations, or watch a salvage surgery for head and neck cancer. The wealth of videos, images, and text are comprehensive, didactic, and created by expert surgeons.

With the boards approaching

Quiz yourself with timed Q&A designed for rapid clinical and board review. Hundreds of multiple-choice questions, with answer explanations, comes in an intuitive, feature-heavy interface. Plus, review for oral boards, rounds, and more with a variety of easily accessible board review content – including outlines and cases.

Download the MedOne App for on-the-go learning!

When writing, presenting, or teaching

As you research, download content as a PDF or PPT slide with automatically included bibliographic info that's compatible with reference manager software. MedOne's Playlist feature lets you save and organize content for yourself, or to share with students and colleagues.

Everyday

Review procedures, cases, browse the latest research, read a chapter or watch an operative video. The depth of content is easily searchable, and with the ability to highlight, take notes, plus access remotely or offline through the MedOne App, you can review the exact information you need, when you need it – making MedOne the ultimate daily reference.

Board Prep with Interactive Q&A

Hundreds of Q&A, designed for the boards, come in a feature-heavy interface that lets residents create quizzes and track progress.
